SIR,

I have the honor to state that according to the rules prescribed for the Subordinate Accounts Service Examination (Vide annexure to Government Order No.Fl.2731/G.F.92-17-11 dated 10th December 1918) the marks required to secure a pass have been fixed at 40% in each subject and 50% in the aggregate. In British India the rules have been relaxed and the standard of marks required for a pass in the Subordinate Accounts Service has been reduced to 35% in each subject generally and 40% in the aggregate and a candidate who shows marked excellence in any subject by passing therein with not less than 60 per cent marks is also exempted from further examination in that subject (vide Appendix 4 to the Audit Code page 308) I would recommend that a similar concession be allowed to our candidates also, though it is not expedient to lower the minimum, from 50% to 40% immediately. I would suggest the percentage may be lowered and fixed at 40% in each subject and 45% in the aggregate and that candidates securing over 60% in any subject be exempted from sitting for that paper in subsequent examinations.

2. I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the above proposal and also for giving effect thereto commencing from the Subordinate Accounts Service Examination held in April last.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T Satyaraj

Comptroller.
